

Family learning webinar series November 2021

Date and time	Title	Facilitator	Registration (free)
Monday 22 November 11.00 – 12.00.	‘The Ripple Effect’- The adventures of a Family Learning kayaking course in partnership with a DEIS Primary School: How outdoor projects can engage ‘hard to reach’ parents.	Laura Barrett, Family Learning and Community Education Resource Worker, Limerick and Clare ETB and Joe Garry, Scoil Chríost Rí, Cloughleigh, Ennis, Co Clare.	Register here
Tuesday 23 November 11.00 – 12.00.	Let’s get Christmassy! Intercultural Family Learning Workshop: This webinar will look at a number of festive activities that you can use with your family learning groups, either online or face to face. It will focus on the materials needed, as well as planning and delivery tips. All the activities are craft-based but include literacy, numeracy and digital literacy activities suitable for native English speakers or ESOL learners.	Helen Walsh, Literacy Resource Worker and Carmel O Neill, Adult Literacy Tutor, Kilkenny Adult Learning Service, Kilkenny and Carlow ETB.	Register here
Wednesday 24 November 11.00 – 12.00.	Family learning online - Lessons from 2021: How to move family learning programmes online. Case studies from January - March 2021 in Kilkenny and Carlow and Limerick and Clare ETBs.	Ann Devitt, Associate Professor in Education, and Colm Ross, Research Fellow, Trinity College Dublin.	Register here
Thursday 25 November 11.00 – 12.00.	Growing Family Learning - Lessons learned about the ‘Family Literacy Practices in ETBs: Guidelines, Case Studies and Recommendations’ report.	Eleanor Neff and Toni Lamb, Project Workers on Marking Progress, NALA.	Register here
Friday 26 November 11.00 – 12.00.	‘Céad Míle Fáilte’ art project: Art workshops celebrating migrant families in Ireland. Meet the artist and author behind the Céad Míle Fáilte book and workshops, who will share the techniques and tools. And hear from the project coordinator who organised the project in the local library.	Sean Corcoran, The Art Hand and Mary Carbery, Librarian and Right to Read Co-ordinator with Waterford Library Service.	Register here

There is no cost for attending these Family Learning webinars.

NALA membership: You don’t have to be a NALA member to participate. However, we would be delighted if you would consider joining if you are not already a member.

For more information go to www.nala.ie or contact Fergus Dolan in NALA on fdolan@nala.ie